12-DAY SAMPLE ITINERARY

Want more days? Fewer days? Fewer waterfalls? More nightlife? Let us know! We do the planning just to make it easy on you, but the trip is all yours – we'll add or subtract based on what matters most to you.

DAYS 1-3

THE SACRED VALLEY

- Unfathomable scenery and history in this mystical valley.
- Incan past meets Peruvian present: Tour the Maras salt mines and Moray terraces.
- Scenic Vistadome train ride to the foot of Machu Picchu.

Begin your trip by exploring the valleys and peaks of the Andes. The days are filled to the brim with unforgettable views and cultural strongholds, but you can take everything at a leisurely pace! In addition to Incan ruins, you'll see locals work the looms to produce those iconic textiles, visit Peru's liveliest artisans' market and enjoy a couple gourmet meals along the way.

DAYS 4-5

MACHU PICCHU AND CUSCO

- The big event: Sunrise at Machu Picchu!
- Private guided tour of the Temple of the Sun, the Cathedral and traditional markets.
- Explore museums, ruins, streets and shops in the enchanting town of Cusco.

Watch the sun rise over Machu Picchu in one of the quietest hours of the day. You'll have this profound experience almost entirely to yourself, before hiking up to the Huayna Picchu peak. Cusco is just ripe with historical stops and archaeological sites. Many visitors like to add an extra day in Cusco to give them more time to soak up the atmosphere.

DAYS 9-10

IGUAZU FALLS

- Private, up-close tours of Iguazu Falls tours from both Argentina and Brazil.
- "The Greatest Adventure" boat ride through the waterfalls.
- Hop over to Rio and watch the sunset from your beachfront hotel.

Dive straight into the action (not literally, unless you want to) at Argentina's side of Iguazu Falls. Your guide will help you avoid crowds and take you to the most hidden of the 270 waterfalls. The Brazilian side of the falls is entirely different, and ends with an up-close encounter with the largest waterfall, Garganta del Diablo (or Devil's Throat). Don't let the name fool you; it's paradise!
