

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew Community of Ministry for Men

Voluntary donation to the Episcopal Community of Ministry for Men through the Brotherhood of St. Andrew supports the following activities benefiting local parishes:

Building Partnerships and Alliances to gain resources plus state of the art facilitating, mentoring, and/or leadership training for expanding Congregational Vitality.

Providing Web Page, Facebook, Blog, LinkedIn, and YouTube capabilities for idea sharing, inquiries, and testimonials

Special event planning for local parish, deanery, or parish use during a ministry fair day atmosphere

Assisting Parishes and Dioceses in creating Men's Ministry links and formats to disciple men to Christ

Primary resource and clearing house for Restorative Justice Ministry program opportunities including: Kairos, Veteran's Courts, Half-Way Houses, In Prison Brotherhood ministry, Step-Houses, and Summer Camps for the children of incarcerated men.

Facilitating local parishes develop Veteran Friendly Congregations to provide a safe haven for veterans encountering post dramatic stress disorder, addictions, suicidal tendencies, spouse abuse, and divorces

Helping young men develop spirituality through participating in Boy Scouts of America activities

Mentoring programs for the inner city fatherless young men

Supporting Episcopal Community Service programs to combat homelessness; participating in such programs as Habitat for Humanity

Informational material including St. Andrew Cross, Men's Ministry brochures in English and Spanish

Advocating Family enrichment for blended families, divorced children, and assisting single parents

Grand parenting

Coping with Aging parents

Upholding the spiritual learning experiences gained through Cursillo, Walk to Emmaus, One Day to Live, Alfa, or other spiritual retreat formats

Bible Studies

International Missions for the Americas (Province 9) and Africa

Canterbury Clubs for college campuses

Seminary liaison applications to better equip new clergy learn and appreciate the value of an active men's ministry throughout the entire church

Bishop Advisory Council for enhancing men's ministry throughout the Episcopal Anglican communities