Proved and Tested Before Walking Through Your Doors

Testing candidates can be a time consuming hassle. But since our focus is staffing, it's one of the many things we excel at.

We test our own candidates on a variety of software skills and behavioral evaluations. With access to literally hundreds of tests and assessments through ProveIt, we can oversee the pre-hire testing for all of your candidates. Tests would be administered at a TemPositions' office location, and the test results will be provided to you in a timely manner saving you time to focus on more mission critical business.
