Dear Sir/Madam,

I should like to inform you that the Economic and Social Council, at its substantive session in July 1997 decided to grant general consultative status (formerly Category I) to your organization.

Your organization may now designate official representatives to the United Nations Headquarters in New York and to the UN offices in Geneva and Vienna. A form is enclosed for your convenience. Designated representatives must pick up their passes in person at the site designated.

Should you wish to indicate your status with the United Nations on your letterhead, please use the following wording: "NGO in general consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations".

The United Nations emblem may not be used unless approval has been granted by the Legal Office of the United Nations. This is not granted for stationery use, or for any printed materials describing your organization.

A package containing further information will be mailed to you at a later date.

Sincerely yours,

Farida Ayoub, Chief
NGO Section/DESA, Room DC1-1076
