On the next page are all the tweaks. There is one concern – the area at the bottom has limited visibility, I think we should raise this higher. Rather than increasing the flame height just fade out to black from the bottom of the flame.

I think you can create space you need by reducing the amount of Sky   (as I've lowered some of the elements that were in the Sky.) Perhaps start the sky here.

There will be other tweaks but I think we can do those ourselves providing they are in .ai

Format. Please confirm that what you have done is totally scalable to this large banner size

 "TWO ROADS IN THIS LIFE / TWO DESTINIES IN E[ternity] Mat.7:13-14".

- Start Hell fire from here
- Strat Broad road here and centre sword at the beginning of the road
- Hide Adam and Eve Nakedness with more bushes
- Jer 2.22 rev at start of road
- Just keep the words horizontal
- Adam and eve may need to move up and to the left to create space
- Make text re birth of Jesus much more significant
- Put references on cross as in original
- All people on Broad way to be moving clearly from left to right – Accept one person Tuning back in repentance.
- People walking towards heaven not downward
- Put door in location shown on brief
- Remove these people
- Move Snake more to right so it's not in the visually limited zone. Also remove the words "Fierce as a Lion".
- Lower Sword as indicated
- Lower kingdom as indicated
- Move sheep and goats directly under sword
- Remove these people
- Remove Black, replace with sky. Move Fullness of Joy and great white throne as shown, put one s person in front of great white throne
- Remove all people from the fire throughout.
