

Collaborate with Åbo Akademi and create collective impact

Partner with us for collective impact

- Engage our staff for research
- Engage a staff member from our staff mobility programme
- Fund our activities
- Invest in our spinoff businesses
- Mobilize our research
- Create internships
- Share our story
- Talk to us about ways to contribute

At Åbo Akademi University we are committed to creating high quality research and education. We believe that it is important to understand the challenges in the business sector and society overall.

That way we can create excellence and contribute to the prosperity of both our local community and that of our partners around the world.

We believe we can make a difference and have a meaningful impact. Collaborate with us and share our impact story.
