History	History of the club is inseparable from the history of Stalowa Wola. Along with its construction of a stadium and founding Sport Club the Hunting Club section was created. Members, most enthusiastic hunters, quickly established the statute and regulations of hunting club, and with the registration of the Sports Club in the District Court in Nisko, the club obtained legal status. The first president was Eng. M. Łukasiewicz, first hunter Jan Kędzierski. Unfortunately, with the outbreak of World War II, the club broke off, the hunters consigned their weapons and buried them, hoping that the gloomy war would soon end. But they had to wait 5 long years of occupation. After the war, a 15-person group of hunting enthusiasts, with the same enthusiasm as before, organized the "Knieja" Hunting Club. An interim Management Board was formed with the CEO inż. Edward Terleckim, and at the General Assembly on December 2, 1945, 23 members elected a 10-person Board. The then CEO of Huta inż. Mikołaj Kowalewski. Wheel statutes and hunting regulations were also adopted. In the new statute there was no longer a record that the Circle was a section of the Sports Club. In the next two years, the Circle grew rapidly, with new members arriving. In 1946 The year was already 42. They turned to each other in a nice form - "druh". Hunted on Leased by 17,000 hectares of fields and forests. Hunters came to the fisheries Bicycles, motorbikes and carts. During this period the Wheel encountered various formal difficulties. They dragged Matters related to the registration and approval of the Statute in the Political and Political Paper District Office in Nisko. Due to the negative opinion of the Security Office in Rzeszów, there were problems obtaining a permit by hunters and other The permits were withdrawn because not all the authorities at that time had trust. In space In the years 1947-1951, the number of Circle members decreased by 15 persons. In 1952 the Ministry of Forestry issued the "Statute of the Association of Polish Hunting Association". By using this "Knieja" Circle was established and registered with the new rights in the The then Rzeszów voivodship.
