Brows and Lashes

With tinted eyelashes the eyes look more vivid, even in the morning upon waking, they look more expressive. In addition eyelash tinting is extremely practical and time saving, because daily application of mascara isn't necessary. When using mascara individual lashes stick together creating unpleasant clumps. With tinted eyelashes there is no such problem, because the colour penetrates into each individual lash - without sticking them together or producing clumps. Particularly for contact lense wearers eyelash tinting is ideal as they frequently suffer because
