Life in London

London is rightly said to be the most diverse city in the world with its endless variety of art, fashion, culture, sports, restaurants and nightlife. It's a city steeped in history where you'll struggle to find a dull moment and away from your studies. With a total student population of around 380,000 from over 100 countries, London offers an unrivalled multicultural experience and is one of the most popular student destinations in the world.

With the campus situated in the heart of the capital in EC1, you will find everything at your doorstep. London is home to many worldwide renowned museums, has an abundance of world-class art galleries and has infamous music and theatre venues - again boasting worldwide reputations.

Being one of the culinary capitals of the world whatever your taste buds desire, London can cater for it all. Whether you're visiting Borough Market or checking in at China Town no cuisine is left unexplored. The same is true for the nightlife. London's thriving nightlife scene can range from stand-up comedy to sell out concerts, if dance music and late nights are more your thing there is many clubs throughout the capital will not disappoint.

On top of all this London is truly the home of sport in the UK. The home of football can be found to the west at Wembley stadium. To the east, the Olympic Village in Stratford and the legacy of the 2012 London Olympics can be found. The home of cricket, Lords can be found just off Marylebone and a short tube journey from here to the south-west will lead you to Twickenham, the home of English Rugby. Not only can you watch just about any sport in London but we encourage you to take part with opportunities to play all throughout the capital.

Everything is easily accessible through excellent transport links, we are minutes from numerous London Underground stations including; Farringdon, Chancery Lane and Blackfriars.

Quality

Anglia Ruskin University is an innovative university that was recently named in Times Higher Education as the only university in the UK to be a 'rising star' and one of the institutions predicted to be challenging the global elite by 2030*.

Studying at Anglia Ruskin University ensures that academic standards and the quality of learning opportunities built into your degree course are at the highest level.

We ensure that not only are our lecturers academically highly qualified, but they also boast significant real-world business experience. That's why all our lecturers are currently working or have worked within the sector they teach. This ensures students don't just receive theoretical knowledge from their textbooks but also valuable practical examples. Perhaps most important of all, they are all great lecturers - adept at communicating their expertise in a lively, informative way that encourages students.

Our students rate ARU London highly for teaching, personal development and assessment & feedback. 92% of students agree that lecturers are articulate and succinct as well as 91% of students say that lecturers are enthusiastic.

Anglia Ruskin University has long been renowned for its success in nurturing Entrepreneurial talent and we continued our run of awards for entrepreneurship at the Lloyds Bank National Business Awards 2016 otherwise known as "the Oscars of Great British business." ARU saw off a packed field of competition to win the Duke of York Award for University Entrepreneurship. The judges said that ARU had "injected enterprise and innovation throughout the curriculum". Winning the Duke of York Award for University Entrepreneurship underlines the emphasis Anglia Ruskin places on ensuring an entrepreneurial culture runs through the fabric of our university.

We'll help you get a good degree by nurturing your ambitions, supporting you throughout your studies and helping you prepare for life after university. You'll make life-long friends, enjoy new experiences and create lasting memories.

Affordability

At ARU London we're committed to supporting our students to succeed in their studies; we're determined to help you realise your full potential.

Books4u

There are a few things to know about academic books; they're big, they're heavy and they'll help you pass your degree. Something you might not know is they're also very expensive. ARU London knows the price tags of your reading materials can be a burden and that is why we support our students by supplying the core textbook for each of your modules for free. You will receive your textbooks throughout the registration and orientation process.

Timetable

We've structured our degrees to be taught across evening and weekends through a unique three day a week timetable. We currently run our evening and weekend programme on a Tuesday and Thursday evening and Saturday all day. This enables you to maintain part time employment to allow you to graduate debt free.

Employability

Here at ARU London we focus on a business-orientated education to ensure our students are equipped with the necessary knowledge, understanding and the all-important transferable skills for the world of work. You will graduate with the required work ethic, finely tuned analytical skills, problem-solving abilities and the ambition to overcome challenges. We have worked closely with key employers to design courses to meet the future needs of the industry

At ARU London we encourage our students to work closely with our key employers in order to maximise their chances of finding meaningful work during or after their degree. We regularly host Employers Fairs, which gives students the chance to gain valuable insight into the demands of employers in a variety of industries.

Employability Office

ARU London has an Employability Office with an open door policy to all our students who are looking to find meaningful work whilst they study.

Our Work Placement Team is responsible for creating new contacts and developing those already existing with prospective employers for students on all courses at ARU London. They will guide and provide you with the tools to improve your employability skills and prepare you for the working world. They act as a link between the employers and students and are available to assist you throughout your study at university.

Learning Experience

Here at ARU London we have a unique approach to the teaching timetable. Our evening and weekend delivery gives students flexibility to balance their studies with their personal and work life.

Each module is delivered through a combination of group lecturers - where the main ideas and concepts are presented - and tutorials - where students form smaller groups for an interactive discussion and analysis of the lecture content. ARUL's assessments are varied to give everyone an equal opportunity of achieving the best grade.

As an ARU student you will have access to ARUL's Library, Computer Labs. You will also be able to utilise the extensive online resources of Anglia Ruskin University to support you throughout your degree. Our online Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) provides you with a wealth of additional information including; lecture notes, further study materials and the ARU e-Library.

The Timetable

An example of our current evening and weekend timetable is featured below, accurate for 2018/19. The delivery provides students with 12 hours of contact time and expects an additional 30 hours of self-study and personal work to be completed outside of teaching hours.

*Please note this is the current timetable and is subject to change.

The Campus

Location

ARU London's campus is located at 19 Charterhouse Street, EC1, in the heart of central London. The campus is within a minutes' walk of the city and the square mile (London's business and financial district). Spread over a total area of some 65,000sq.ft, our London campus is a truly world class facility. Famous tourist attractions such as Covent Garden, Oxford Street, Leicester Square, The Shard, and St Pauls Cathedral are just a few minutes bus or tube ride away.

Well Connected

The proximity of both Chancery Lane (Central line) and Farringdon stations (Hammersmith & City, Circle, Metropolitan Underground lines + First Capital Connect, Thameslink, and Southeastern rail services) make ARU London very easy to get to from all areas of London and outside the capital.

In 2018 Farringdon will also be one of the central hubs for Crossrail. When the Elizabeth line (Crossrail) Farringdon station opens it will be one of the busiest in the UK, connecting with Thameslink and the London Underground to provide links with outer London, the home counties, the City, Canary Wharf and three of London's five airports.

Facilities

A modern, well-equipped campus, spread over a total area of some 65,000 square feet, the ARU London campus comprises:

- Five floors of state-of-the-art lecture theatres, seminar rooms, PC-equipped study areas and space for you to work, relax and socialise.
- We have over 30 seminar rooms and theatres ranging in size from those that can accommodate up to 200 students in a theatre style seating arrangement to others that are perfect for highly interactive seminars.
- Multiple computer labs.
- A library housing copies of all the core textbooks, a range of relevant publications and online archives for each course. There are also dedicated areas suitable for study groups, quiet study or simply catching up on your emails.
- If you need to refuel, there is a cafeteria on the campus, as well as a popular student common room and a large games room with table tennis and pool.
- Wi-Fi is available throughout the campus.

ARU Student's Union

As a student of ARU London you'll have the chance to become a member of our Student's Union.
