A bewildered Hero and the Lady looked around.

This new world Shined with colours! They covered their eyes as they were instructed by Itchy. It would take some time for their vision to adapt.

They stepped off the elevator platform and discovered ~~they~~ ~~the~~ elevator was inside a giant tree! Many more surprises were in store for ~~the~~ them.

Say What?! an elevator
in a tree?!

← A Yee elevator operator.

Hero and Augie set off to their destination. Itchy and the lady stayed behind. The Yee can't be discovered by the human populations, so they make their visits to Topworld a covert operation. They hide their existence.

At last ... Cairo...and Egyptians.
