EXHIBITIONS

INDELIBLE (P)INK

THE PINK PANTHER & POPULAR CULTURE

Jan 18 – Feb 24, 2018

This exhibition is a blast from the past, spying on the Pink Panther as an example of popular culture while uncovering his contribution to 20th century animation.

The Pink Panther was created by Friz Freleng for the opening title sequence of Blake Edwards' 1963 film, The Pink Panther, starring Peter Sellers as the bumbling Inspector Clouseau, out to catch the thief of a legendary diamond called the "Pink Panther". Accompanied by Henry Mancini's mod jazz beat, Freleng's animated Pink Panther moved across the silver screen, straight into superstar status. This exhibit is on loan from the Daura Gallery in Lynchburg, Virginia. The Pink Panther™ & ©1964-2006 Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios.

Opening Reception
Thursday, January 18, 5-7PM

Tuesday, May 1, 5-7PM

MEMBERS' EXHIBITION

Jun 9 – Jun 30, 2017

This annual non-juried exhibition highlights the creativity of the members of the Larson Gallery Guild.

The Larson Gallery Guild consists of 350 members of which approximately 130 are listed as artists. In 2017, this exhibition had around 90 entries.

Since Guild members can only exhibit one piece in the exhibit, members are very selective about their work and choose their best piece created over the past two years.

What makes this exhibit special is its variety of media. Many artists use this time to explore and exhibit the result of a new process.

Opening Reception
Saturday, June 9, 3-5PM
