There are three key measures of success on completing the programme:

1. Your level of confidence that you and your business are set for success
2. Time saved in your transition and in operationalising your businesses
3. Incremental income identified and generated in that time

We are also open to designing bespoke, tailored programmes based on your individual requirements.

If you are a co-founder, we can tailor our service to work for both of you. We have a particular interest in life-partners co-founding consulting/professional services businesses.

Additional specialist consultants and support

Wise Sherpa has carefully curated an eco-system of associates and experts which we believe is unique in this space. They can advise on specific areas where you may require additional support based upon your business objectives, experience gaps and needs.*
