Alltheartstheatre

- After – school classes as well as our Saturday performers academy in Bexley, Bromley, Sidcup & the surrounds
- Classes are suited to various abilities from beginners to advanced in a fun & friendly environment
- Our ethos is to keep prices low making our training available to all
- Teachers are CRB checked industry experts with nationally recognised teaching qualifications
- Our professional TV & Theatrical agency is available to all of our pupils

50% up to cheaper than other theatre schools

AFFORDABLE!

Why pay for multiple classes when you can learn all three theatre disciplines in one affordable, fantastically fun session? We are a nationally accredited school and offer the option of taking vocational exams with LAMDA & IDTA, as well as unparalleled performance opportunities both locally & in the West End. Our quality training is evident in our pupils success, through our TV & Theatrical agency current pupils have won major TV & stage roles with former pupils going on to become series regulars in Hollyoaks & Cradle to Grave. So whether it's a new hobby to build confidence, improve speech & language skills & make new friends, or with an eye to a professional career in performing arts, ATA is leading the way in high quality classes at prices you can afford.
