DATING QUESTIONS HERO

- The 'Dating Questions Hero' App is intended to be a light-hearted, simple, elegant, fun App, to help Users ask and engage in dating questions.
- The vision is: People who are going on a date, and do not know what questions to ask, they can download this app and start to familiarize themselves with questions they may ask or be asked by their date.
- The App is intended to only include genuine, clean and appropriate content.

Suggestion: Potentially to make the question appear in a "Message" element. What do you guys think?

What elements do you think will work really nicely for swiping left and right?

Within the Dating Tips area, there will be a 1 – 2 sentence “Explanation” of what the tip is trying to convey.

As you can see here, the Tip is to ‘be on time’. The ‘Explainer’ then highlights why this is important 😊
