

Content:

Vision

- Why do I do this
- How do I do this
- What am I doing

Coaching

- Career development
- Conflicts
- What is coaching, why coaching
- Conduct of a session and of the whole consultation
- Limits of coaching
- Examples of positive effects of coaching

Support concept

Blog about current topics

Links

About me

Contact form

Footer / Disclaimer

The following topics are the most important parts of my daily work as a coach with my clients, maybe this helps to get choos a suitable design:

- personality development, analysing aspects and patterns and showing their influence
- Improve collaboration and cooperation in teams
- Addressing and solving conflicts (private and business)
- Identify and foster motivation, drivers, goals and action patterns
- Define next steps for the further improvement
- Accompany reorientation in professional career
- Discovering and using the strengths of the customers

The major part of my work is direct conversation with the customer, on site or virtually. My job is to support the customer in recognizing his own ideas, goals and possibilities and to define next steps in the desired direction