

Hi Folks!

Please forgive my lack of art skills here! Ha! I drew this on my iPad in 60 seconds, just to share my idea of what the layout could look like. It's very general, obviously. I'm thinking that an artistic scene of the main character raising the MIDDLE STATES flag at his rural farm wold bode well for the story at hand. I'm guessing the title, MIDDLE STATES, would go at the top in somewhat bold letters? Author name at the bottom? The other file I uploaded has the wording for the back cover.
