

ACOUSTIC ESSENTIALS FOR ARCHITECTS

The primer on acoustics and sound many architects wish they were offered in school

Abstract

This presentation of acoustical concepts and terminology relates directly to the design and construction of a built environment. A low-tech, conversational narrative, providing descriptions, explanations, and examples that authenticate the synergetic relationship bonding architecture and sound.

Michael Fay | GraceNote Design Studio