ARTWORK APPROVAL

Artwork in this document may vary slightly in size, placement, or colour (up to 5%) in the final product. This is a standard occurrence due to material properties, production processes, and application methods, and does not affect quality. By approving, you accept this potential variance.

While due care is taken when producing your artwork, ProCloud Creative is not liable for errors in approved designs. Please check spelling, sizes, and colours before signing off. To proceed, please sign and email approval to reece@procloud.com.au.

Changes after approval may incur extra costs. Production will begin upon receipt of approval.
