Mahaska County Bicycle Friendly Roads

COUNTY ROAD T65:

Cycling enthusiasts will enjoy County Road T65 (take East Glendale Road), a nine-mile look at rural Mahaska County's agricultural past and present. Two miles into your ride, you come across the 1844 Nelson Pioneer Farm & Museum, Iowa's first museum to honor pioneer farming. As you continue, the scenery gives you a look at present-day sprawling soybean and cornfields. Your journey through Mahaska County's farming community will comes to a conclusion at the intersection of G39, a safe spot to turn around and head back toward Oskaloosa.

COUNTY ROAD T39:

For a combination of experiences, take County Road T39 south of Beacon and ride through the rolling hills of the Des Moines River Valley. A quick stop at Eveland Access provides great opportunities to view American Bald Eagles in their natural habitat. There is fishing , camping, picnicking, and calming river scenic views at Eveland. This eight-mile route concludes at the intersection of T39.
