Fun

Note: The mobile frame with the icon are just for illustration. We need here something that symbolizes Fun

Forget what you know - Quitix makes it fun to quit. The battle between your good and bad demons comes to life in our gamified approach for managing your campaigns.

Quitix gives you the opportunity to take an active role in helping your network to smash your common addictions as a team. That's right, we converted the cessation process into a social game.

Inspire

Note: The mobile frame with the icon are just for illustration. We need here something that symbolizes Inspiration

One of the most important factors for successful quitting is the ability to stay inspired during the process.

That's why we designed Quitix as a platform where you can inspire and be inspired by a supportive network of awesome Quitix ninjas!

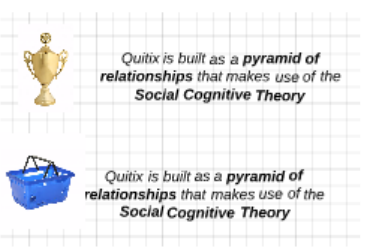

Achieve

Quitix is built as a pyramid of relationships that makes use of the Social Cognitive Theory, to provide a powerful network of positive reinforcement.

The bigger you make it the stronger you get.
