The LVII

The athlete :
Tahnée Seagrave is following her dream. Her hard training is paying off with a junior Downhill world champion mountain bike title in 2013 and 5th on her first year with the elites. This gorgeous girl will go very far and is an example for young girls who want to achieve something. Her focus is amazing!

The Hat:
The LVII comes in 4 colors. The patch on the front gives the hat a bold character. Great quality on the slopes but stylish for the city. Made of acrylic this hat will be both soft and warm.

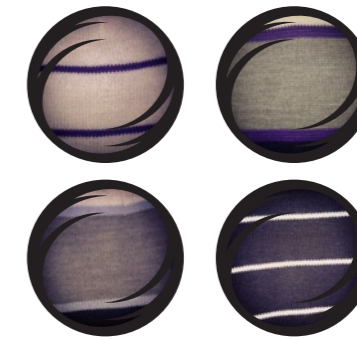

The Ben Cavet

The Athlete:
Ben Cavet is the junior world champ dual mogul skier, vice junior world champion mogul skier and was 8th at the Olympics in Sochi. Born in England but competing for France. Ben is our first athlete and just an amazing guy. Go Ben!!!

The Ben Cavet 4 in 1 Beanie is both baggy and reversible. You can wear this hat in 2 ways: baggy or sailor and by reversing it you have 2 different color ways. This hat comes in size M and L and is proudly made in France of 100% acrylic.

The BPJ

The Athlete:
"Hi, I'm Bruce Perry Junior, love your products. Would you sponsor me?"

Off course Bruce!

And 6 months later this little legend was the YOUNGEST TEAM MEMBER of the USA freestyle ski team. Born and raised in Colorado, Bruce is our first non-European athlete. Ben Cavet, watch out, here comes Bruce!

The Hat
Bruce wanted a hat that suits his age. So together we picked out a nice soft slouch beanie, but you can fold it and wear it as a sailor beanie too. It comes in 9 different m el ee colors. Made of soft acrylic. No itching involved!

With a 2nd in the French boardercross champs she has the opportunity to train with the young French team this summer. We cant wait to see what 2015 will bring!

The Beanie:

Maisi's choice is a warm super soft wooly hat. It comes in 6 amazing colourways and it has a pompon. You can wear The Mouse super baggy or fold it up and wear it tight. It is made from amazing soft acrylic.
