

HOMES FOR DINNER

A celebration of “home” to support those who don’t have one.

WHEN ...

October 25, 2013

HOW IT WORKS...

20 hosts who love food and entertaining welcome 10 ticket holders into their homes for a dinner party. They won’t know beforehand whose coming and their guests, who buy a “blind” ticket, won’t know where they’re going.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED...

Everyone gathers for a pre-dinner reception with cocktails and music. Guests then receive an envelope at 6pm. Inside the name of their host is revealed. Now it’s time to depart for wonderful food and new friends.

HOSTS...

Tickets holders may dine with Marc Garneau, Corey Mintz (Toronto Star), or folks who just throw one heck of a good dinner party.

OUR HOSTS...

Each host provides a 4-course dinner with wine for 8-12 people. At 8pm all Host toast Homes First and affirm that “We are gathered here tonight in my home in support of the thousands of people in our City without a home.”

TICKETS AND PARTNERS...

$150 each, $1,000 for 10
Event Partners start at $2,500

All funds raised support Homes First’s housing & food programs. Homes First provides affordable, stable housing and supports to break the cycle of homelessness. There are over 5,000 people in Toronto without a safe stable place to live. Hundreds live “rough” – in ravines, stairwells or on the street. Hundreds more suffer with mental illness and addictions. This is who we serve. Homes First operates 16 Buildings in 9 Toronto neighbourhoods, housing 550 men, women, and families every night.
