

GP SYNERGY

GP Synergy Awards

Dr Jeremy Bunker Outstanding Achievement Award

Dr Vanessa Moran

In honour of GP Synergy's late Director of Training, Dr Jeremy Bunker, this is GP Synergy's peak award, recognising outstanding achievement by a GP Synergy staff member, supervisor or current/recently completed registrar.

2013 Dr Vanessa Moran

In 2013, Dr Vanessa Moran, was awarded the Dr Jeremy Bunker Outstanding Achievement Award for her commitment to general practice education.

In her role as a GP Synergy medical educator Vanessa has embraced new technologies to create innovative modes of education delivery. She is an inspiring ambassador of the general practice profession and a dedicated educator.

2012 Dr Richard Loizou

For his commitment to enhancing the GP training for Australian Defence Force registrars and promotion of the general practice profession.

2011 Dr Eloise Warren

For her involvement in the development of an Indigenous health clinic in Bathurst.

This award recognises the achievements of the GP Synergy registrar who completed the Royal Australian College of General Practice (RACGP) fellowship exam with the highest overall score in a given year.

2013 Dr Adam McKeag

The 2013 recipient of the Outstanding Academic Achievement by a Registrar Award was completed general pathway registrar, Dr Adam McKeag. Adam is now a fellowed GP, practising in one of his former training practices in southern Sydney.

2012 Dr Cheryl Cheong

2011 Dr Vanessa Jones

The Outstanding Academic Achievement by a Registrar Award

Dr Adam McKeag

GP Synergy Supervisor of the Year Award

Dr Cara Frame

This award recognises the dedication and on-going commitment to the provision of quality general practice education and training by a GP Synergy supervisor.

2013 Dr Cara Frame

The inaugural GP Synergy Supervisor of the Year Award was presented to Dr Cara Frame – a GP supervisor with over 25 years teaching experience. A practising GP at the Redfern Aboriginal Medical Service, this award recognises her ongoing commitment to general practice education and teaching approach.

GP Synergy Practice Manager of the Year Award

Ms Brooke Morgan

Awarded to a GP Synergy Practice Manager in recognition of their dedication and on-going commitment to the provision of quality general practice education and training.

2013: Brooke Morgan

In 2013, the inaugural GP Synergy Practice Manager of the Year Award was presented to Brooke Morgan, practice manager at Picton Family Medical Practice in recognition of her instrumental role in fostering a learning culture within the practice.

GP Synergy Staff Member of the Year Award

Dr Sonia Cattley (PhD)

This award recognises the dedication and on-going commitment to the provision of quality general practice education and training by a GP Synergy staff member.

2013: Dr Sonia Cattley (PhD)

The recipient of the inaugural GP Synergy Staff Member of the Year Award was Dr Sonia Cattley (PhD). This award recognises Sonia's role in managing the administration of over 380 GP registrars, and the critical role she plays in their successful completion of the GP training program.

Australian Government
General Practice Education and Training Limited