

NAADAC delivers continuing education via:

- National conference
- Advocacy/workforce conferences coordinated with our affiliates
- Independent homestudy courses
- Online courses
- Webinars
- Face-to-face seminars
- Recovery Month activities
- NAADAC Speakers Bureau

All of NAADAC's trainings can be from 1 hour to 3 days and can be adapted to accommodate all audiences and venues.

- Contract with NAADAC for your conference
- 35% off NAADAC products to distribute at trainings or resale at regular price
- Use NAADAC trainers and receive some training materials for free
- Reduced trainer fees for affiliates
- Train-the-Trainer (TOT) facilitation available for state, regional or national dissemination

Discounts for NAADAC members - www.naadac.org/join

NAADAC has highly-skilled trainers available immediately to offer continuing education seminars on the following addiction-related topics:

- Treatment admission (screening, intake and orientation)
- Clinical assessment
- Ongoing treatment planning
- Individual counseling theories, skills and techniques
- Group counseling theories, skills and techniques
- Family systems
- Crisis intervention and management
- Documentation
- Referral
- Case management
- Discharge and continuing care
- Legal and ethical issues
- Cultural diversity
- Professional identity
- Advocacy

- Clinical supervision
- Conflict resolution
- Co-occurring disorders
- DOT Substance Abuse Professional (SAP)
- Medication-assisted recovery for opioid dependence
- Medication-assisted recovery for alcohol dependence
- Motivational Interviewing
- Psychopharmacology and physiology
- Spiritual caregiving
- Trauma
- Women's issues in recovery
- Adolescent population
- Children of substance use dependents
- LGBT population
- Recovery oriented systems of care

Have specific needs or requests?
Contact us to discuss!

Phone: 800-548-0497

Email: naadac@naadac.org

www.naadac.org