

Nashville's most exciting Party is ^{almost} here!

There are ~~limited number of~~ ^{a few} tickets left for Family & Children's Service's House Party, October 30th ~~at 6 PM~~. This is a preview of the spectacular renovation of the iconic modern Belle Meade residence of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Shulman, now the home of Anthony Timgitella and John Fulcher of Smythe & Cortlandt. The event will benefit the Connecting Kids program at FCS, which helps prepare foster children for adoption.

The evening will feature an incredible selection of modern art from established and emerging artists personally chosen by the home's designers/owners and curated by Virginia L. Speed, of The Speed Art Museum, Louisville. Galleries featured include the following:

The David Lusk Gallery, Nashville/Memphis
The Julia Martin Gallery, Nashville
Wooster Projects, New York

Both the home and the artwork are a must see. ~~A portion of the artwork sales on the evening of the event will benefit Family & Children's Service.~~ Tickets will sell out and must be purchased in advance.
