

Angela Anderson is The Trusty Sidekick!

Ever think it'd be handy to have a sidekick - someone to take care of the details so you can have more time? You're in luck! Angela is now taking on new virtual assisting clients!

Angela got her start in virtual assisting in 2011 when she met Colleen Bracken, PCC and president of Bracken Leadership, who immediately agreed that Angela be referred to as her sidekick.

Angela handles scheduling, interfaces with clients and maintains the CRM. She arranges oodles of 360 interviews, manages social media, and has even been known to run an errand or two! And most of this is accomplished remotely. How remote? After relocating to the West Coast, Angela's relationship with Philly-based Bracken Leadership is still going strong.

So what's the result? Let's turn it over to Colleen.

"Angela's reliability, responsiveness, and professionalism have made her an integral part of my business. She constantly over-delivers, making my life easier and the company better. I cannot recommend her strongly enough." -Colleen Bracken, PCC, President and Founder of Bracken Leadership
