

PURSUIT

About Pursuit

Pursuit is a high performance training and consulting company with high performance people. Pursuit's team consists of Fighter Pilots, Navy SEALs, Special Forces, Astronauts, and veteran industry & corporate leaders. We leverage the credibility, experience, expertise, and ingenuity of our team to develop solutions for our clients.

Pursuit's Mission

Optimize Safety And Operational Excellence In Complex High-Risk Arenas.

Foundation of Excellence

The Foundation of Excellence is built on vision, leadership, communication, and teamwork. Using Pursuit practices, high performance companies execute toward a crystal clear strategic vision that leadership clearly communicates to frontline teams and individuals. Pursuit's solutions accelerate the realization of an organization's vision.

Engine of Excellence

Pursuit instills the disciplines of Planning, Briefing, Execution, and the After Action Review (AAR) that raise levels of excellence and drive continuous improvement within an organization.

The Engine of Excellence yields consistent and predictable results. Our proprietary programs provide disciplined methodologies that create deliberate actions for pursuing your organization's vision.

Human Performance

The human element is the most important factor for success in complex high-risk organizations. Pursuit laser-focuses on the strengths and weaknesses of the human component. Our solutions are built to optimize leadership, decision-making, situational awareness, communications, teamwork, and more.

Pursuit ZERO™

The pursuit of zero incidents is the hallmark of high-performing complex high-risk organizations. Our Pursuit ZERO™ family of programs builds the skill sets required for organizations and individuals to embark on a true Pursuit of Excellence.
