I grew up in the Hamptons.

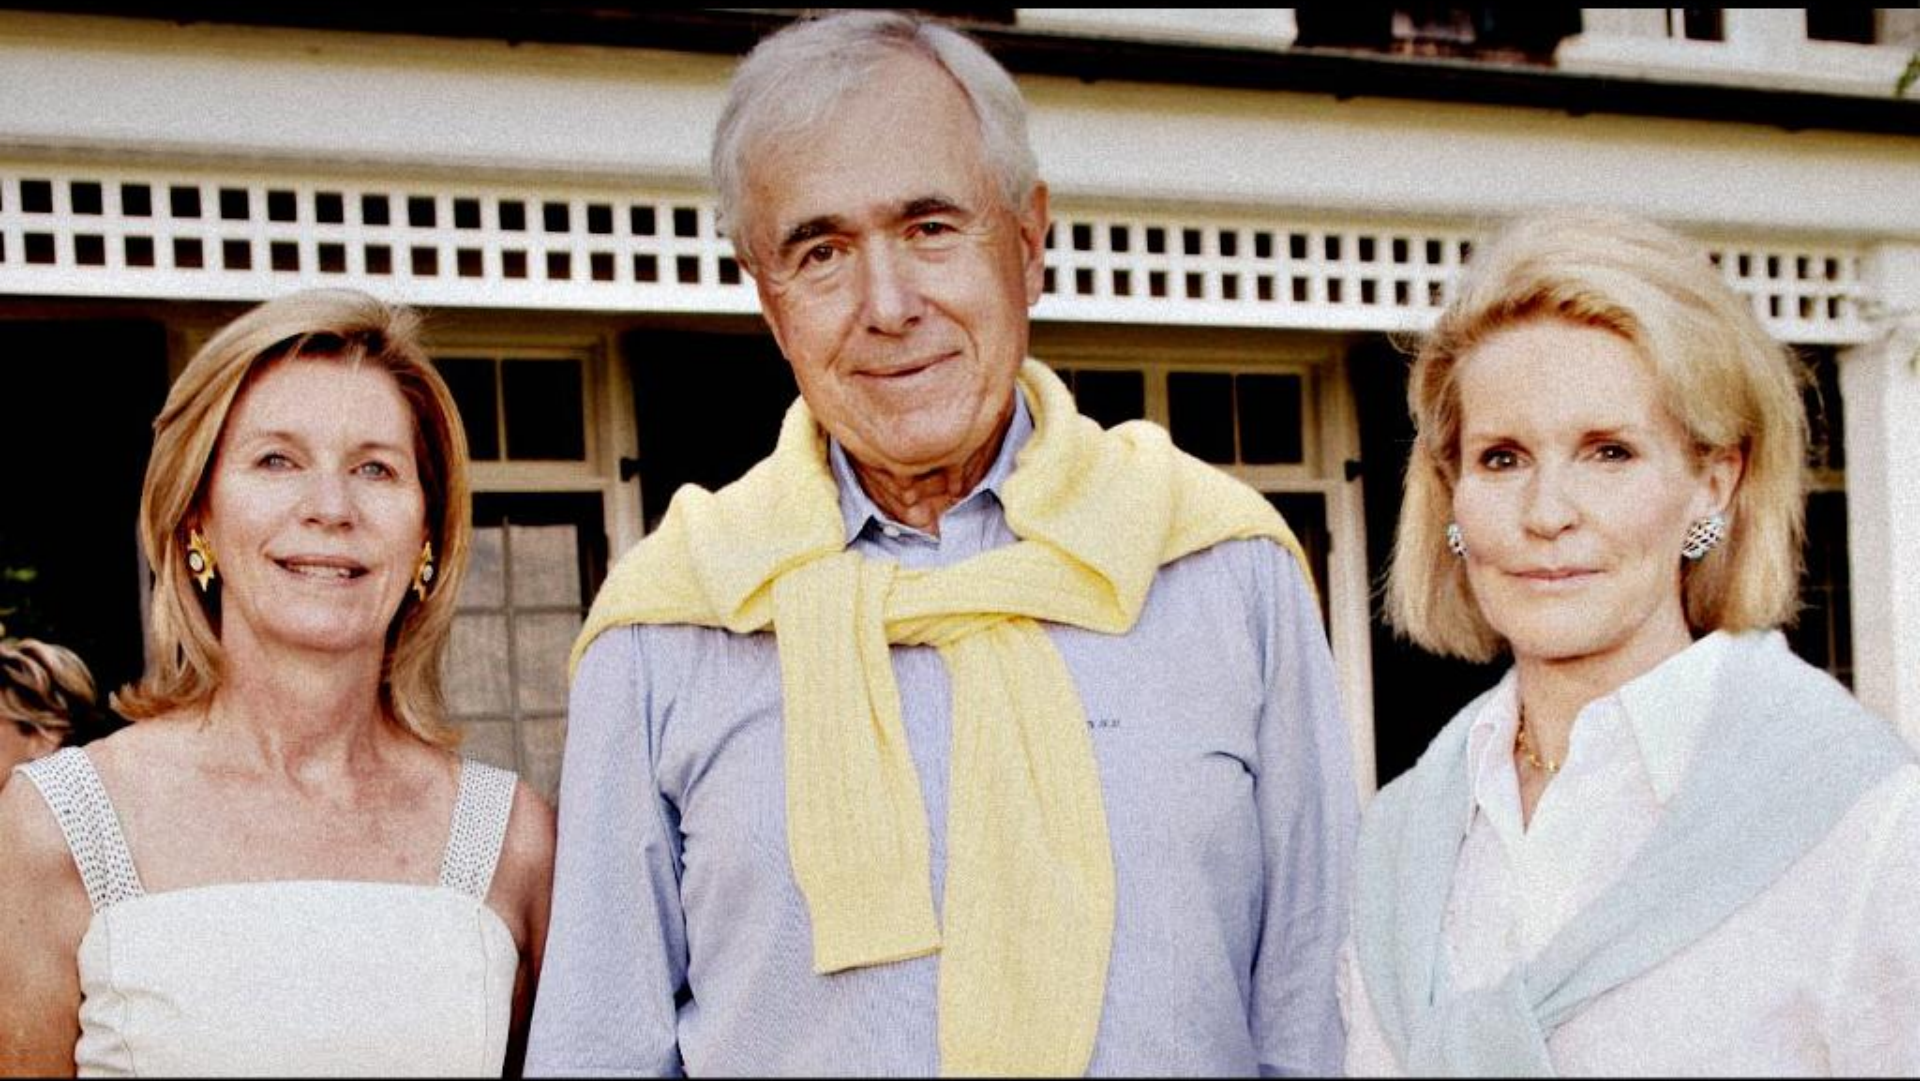

No, not summers on Lilly Pond Lane.

But year round on Paradise Lane.

Same place Dad grew up.

Not gonna lie. I hate City People.

They act like they own the place.

They only see us as the help.

It all comes easy for them.

The City Girls are stunning.

City Boys are sophisticated.

They do whatever they want.

And I might do anything to be them.

Even keep my mouth shut.
